

The Brooksher Watershed Institute

Fall 2020 & Winter 2021 Presenters

October 15, 2020

RISING TEMPERATURES & DECLINING FLOWS: The Current & Likely Future of the Colorado River Basin

Andy Mueller, General Manager,
Colorado River Water Conservation District

November 17, 2020

THE ECONOMIC IMPACT OF RIVER RECREATION IN COLORADO

Molly Mugglestone, Director of Colorado Policy & Communication, Business for Water Stewardship

December 10, 2020

GRIZZLY CREEK WILDFIRE: Estimating Post Fire Watershed Response

Steve Hunter, PE, PH, Utilities Resource Manager at City of Aspen Water Department & Former Burned Area Emergency Response Coordinator & Specialist on the White River National Forest

January 14, 2021

HOT TIMES FOR COLDWATER SPORTFISH

Kendall Bakich, Aquatic Biologist,
Colorado Parks & Wildlife

February 11, 2021

YES, MICROPLASTICS ARE IN THE ATMOSPHERE AND AQUATIC ENVIRONMENT!

Janice Brahney, Ph.D., Assistant Professor,
Utah State University

Austin Baldwin, Hydrologist, U.S. Geological Survey

March 10, 2021

MONITORING MOUNTAIN SNOWPACK FOR WATER SUPPLY FORECASTING & BEYOND

Karl Wetlaufer, Hydrologist/Assistant Supervisor,
USDA-NRCS Colorado Snow Survey

April 29, 2021

THE FEATHER THIEF: Author Talk & Book Signing

Kirk Wallace Johnson, Author

ROARING FORK

CONSERVANCY

Bringing People Together to Protect Our Rivers®

Program details and registration at www.roaringfork.org/events

Registration required for all programs.